INDEX TO VOL. LXV

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ABD

ABDUL HAMID II and his Court, Personal Recollections of, 980–993

Aërial Peril, The, 800–809

Afforestation, National, 648-662

Allen (E. K.), A Year with the Public Trustee, 411–418

American literature and Edgar Allan Poe, 140–152

Anatolian Railway and Baghdad Railway, 1083–1094

Anderson (Sir Robert), The Prevention of Crime Act, 241–250

Anglo-German entente, Six German opinions, 725–743

Anglo-German Problem, A German View of the, 346–360

Arabia, Northern, Railway to India across, 163–169

Arctic Ocean, Sledging as a Method of Exploring, 690–698

Arendt (Dr. Otto) on German and English naval rivalry, 732–735

Army Minister, The, and responsibility for war, 925–935

Army, The, the Special Reserve, and the old Militia, 11–15

Arundel (Sir Arundel), Decentralisation of Government in India, 810–825

Australia, A Lesson from, 471–479

Austria-Hungary, the German Fleet, and the Triple Alliance, 1068–1082

BACON-SHAKESPEARE controversy, The, Plautus, Bunyan, and Ben Jonson, 419–434, 630–647, 1038–1055

Baddeley (St. Clair), Caligula's Galleys in the Lake of Nemi, 495–503

Baghdad Railway, The, and the Question of British Co-operation, 1083–1094

Balfour (Mr. Gerald) and Irish agriculture, 956–964

Barclay (Edwyn), The Future of the Public-house, 994–1004

CAL

Barker (J. Ellis), British Work for British Workers, 283–298; German Armaments and the Liberal Government, 570–583

Basle scheme of State-aided insurance against unemployment, 272–282

Beckford's (William) Adventure in Diplomacy: an Unpublished Correspondence, 783–799

Belligerents, neutrals, and contraband, 744–754

Bengali agitators and Indian reforms, 375–385

Berlin Convention on International Copyright, 1056–1067

Berlin in the 'Fifties, Court and Society at: a Reminiscence, 91–108

Birrell's (Mr.) Irish Land Bill, 946–964

Black (C. E. D.), A Railway to India, 163–169

Bowles (Thomas Gibson), The Declaration of London, 744–754

Brewers, the Budget, and Temperance Reform, 994–1004

British Army, The, a hint from India, 397–410

British co-operation in construction of the Baghdad railway, 1083–1094

British naval supremacy and rival Dreadnoughts, 541–564, 565–569, 570–583, 1068–1082

British Navy in European waters, Peace standing of the, 1081–1082

British Work for British Workers, 283–298

Budget, Ireland and the, 855–861

Budget of 1909, The, 909–924

Budget, The, and the taxation of land values, 699–710

Buxton (Noel), The Young Turks, 16–24

CALIGULA'S Galleys in the Lake of Nemi, 495–503

CAR

Carlyle (Jane Welsh), her Love Letters and Mr. J. A. Froude, 826–837
Catholic Reunion, Scottish Orders and, 386–396
Cattle-driving and boycotting in Ireland, 535–540
Cavendish (Lady Frederick), Some Suggestions towards a Solution of the Education Problem, 453–460
Cecil (Lord Hugh), The Unionist Party and its Fiscal Sore, 584–598
Censored by the State, How we came to be, 504–520
Centenary of Mendelssohn, 837–845
Child-rearing, Instruction for mothers, 48–64
Children at school, Feeding, at expense of ratepayers, 862–874
Church of Scotland, The, and ministerial Orders, 386–396
Churches, Reunion of, and Lambeth Conference, 761–774
Clyde and Forth Canal, Strategic value of a, 9–10
Colles (W. Morris), Copyright at Home and Abroad, 1056–1067
Colonial Office, Forty-four Years at the, 599–618
Commissioners' Report on the Poor Law, 875–890
Congested Districts Bill, its failure in Ireland, 946–964
Constitution for South Africa, 904–908
Contraband, International law concerning, 744–754
Copyright at Home and Abroad, 1056–1067
Coulton (G. G.), Our Conscripts at Crécy, 251–257
Court and Society at Berlin in the 'Fifties: a Reminiscence, 91–108
Cox (Harold), The Taxation of Land Values, 191–205; a Reply to, 699–710; The Budget of 1909, 909–924
Crafts, Neglect of training for, in modern education, 1018–1025
Crécy, Our Conscripts at, 251–257
Curzon (Lord) and reforms in Indian administration, 810–825

DARWIN (LADY), A Swedish Experience in Education, 1018–1025
Davison (Charles), The Messina Earthquake, 312–320
Decentralisation of Government in India, 810–825
Divorce versus Compulsory Celibacy, 299–311
Dunlop (Robert), his views on Ireland criticised, 480–494

GER

EARTHQUAKE at Messina, 312–320, 663–674
Economic History, The New Era in, 675–689
Economic Science, The Missing Essentials in, 435–452; 888–854
Education Problem, Some Suggestions towards a Solution of the, 453–460
Educational Problem, The, 109–116
Edward the Third and compulsory military service, 251–257
Elliott (Sir Charles A.), Lord Morley's Indian Reforms, 177–190; State Feeding of School Children in London, 862–874
England, The Lost Empire of (?), 230–240
English language, Milton's mastery of the, 65–78
Erroll (Colonel the Earl of), Our Military Weakness, 11–15; A Rude Awakening, 565–569

FEUDAL dues and land taxation, 191–205
Fitz-Gerald (Edward): a Personal Reminiscence, 461–470
Fleming (Rev. Archibald), Scottish Orders and Catholic Reunion, 386–396
Flying-machines, their use in war, 800–809
Forewarned but not Forearmed: a Warning from 1870–71, 936–945
Franqueville (Comtesse de), Peace or a Sword? Some Reflections of an Extremist, 117–125
Free Trade and restriction in New South Wales and Victoria, 471–479
Free Trade, low wages, and poverty, 283–298
Free Trade Unionists, Liberals, and Tariff Reform, 584–598
French art at the Paris Salon, 1005–1017
Frewen (Moreton), The New Era in Economic History, 675–689
Froude (J. A.), Thomas Carlyle, and Mrs. Carlyle, 826–837
Fuller (Sir Bampfylde), Quo Vadis? a Prospect in Indian Politics, 711–724

GEORGE (Henry) and taxation of land values, 191–205
George (Mr. Lloyd) and his Budget proposals, 909–924
German Armaments and the Liberal Government, 570–583
German Dreadnoughts and British naval supremacy, 541–564, 565–569, 570–583, 891–903, 1068–1082

GER

German Opinions (Six) on the Naval Situation, 725–743
Germany and France in 1870, a warning against unpreparedness, 936–945
Goldman (C. S.), A German View of the Anglo-German Problem, 346–360
Good (T.), Unemployment from the 'Unemployed' Point of View, 153–162
Gould (Dr. George Milbury) on Lafcadio Hearn, 258–271
Government, The, and the House of Lords, 25–33, 34–47
Government, The, What should it do? 223–229
Great Earthquake, Some Personal Experiences of the, 663–674
Great Inquest, The, 614–629
Green (Mrs. John Richard), Tradition versus Enquiry in Irish History, 480–494
Greenwood (George G.), The Vindicators of Shakespeare: a Reply to Sir Edward Sullivan, 1038–1055
Gwinner (Arthur von), The Baghdad Railway and the Question of British Co-operation, 1083–1094

HABITUAL Criminals and Prevention of Crime Act, 241–250
Haldane (Mr.) and the Army, facts and figures, 11–15; Territorial Army and Home Defence, 940–945
Hale (Colonel Lonsdale), Forewarned but not Forearmed: a Warning from 1870–71, 936–945
Halil Halid Bey, The Origin of the Revolt in Turkey, 755–760
Hamilton (Sir William Baillie), Forty-four Years at the Colonial Office, 599–613
Harrison (Alfred H.), Sledging as a Method of Exploring the Arctic Ocean, 690–698
Harrison (Austin), What every German Knows, 891–903
Hearn (Lafcadio), The Real, 258–271
Henry VIII and the Religious Houses of London, 1026–1037
Henson (Canon Hensley), The Lambeth Ideal of Reunion, 761–774
Heredity and feeble-mindedness, 74–90
Hindus and Mohammedans, representation on the Councils of India, 177–190
Home defence, Our unpreparedness for, 1–10, 11–15; a lesson from Prussia and France, 936–945
Hood (Hon. Alexander Nelson), Some Personal Experiences of the Great Earthquake, 663–674

LIC

House of Lords, Reform of the, 34–47
Hurd (Archibald S.), The Balance of Naval Power and the Triple Alliance, 1068–1082

INDIA, A Railway to, 163–169
India, Decentralisation of Government in, 810–825
India Revisited, 375–385
Indian Politics, A Prospect in: Quo Vadis? 711–724
Indian Reforms: a Hindu View, 170–176
Infant Life, The Waste of, 48–64
Inheritance and Sociology, 74–90
'Insurance against Unemployment' Scheme, An, 272–282
International Copyright Law Reform and the Berlin Convention, 1056–1067
Invasion, Is it possible? 1–10
Invasion, Possibilities of, and our unreadiness, 925–935
Ireland and the Budget, 855–861
Ireland 'in Extremis,' 535–540
Irish History, Tradition versus Enquiry in, 480–494
Irish Land Bill, Mr. Birrell's, 946–964
Italy as a Naval Power, 1078

KEETON (Miss A. E.), Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, 337–345
Kennard (Mrs. Arthur), The Real Lafcadio Hearn, 258–271
Kerrich (Mary Eleanor Fitz-Gerald-), Edward Fitz-Gerald: a Personal Reminiscence, 461–470
Kettle (T. M.), Ireland and the Budget, 855–861
Kingston (Gertrude), How we came to be Censored by the State, 504–520
Knox (Major-Gen. Sir W. G.), A Glance at a War Horizon, 925–935

LABOUR and Capital, Karl Marx, Ruskin, and Economic Science, 435–452
Lambeth Ideal of Reunion, The, 761–774
Land Values, Taxation of, 191–205; a Reply to, 699–710
Lane-Claypon (Janet E.), The Waste of Infant Life, 48–64
Lansdowne (Lord) and the Licensing Bill, 25–33
Lathbury (D. C.), Prayer-Book Revision and the Ornaments Rubric, 775–782
Legend, The End of a, 826–837
Legislative Council of India, Native representation on the, 177–190
Licensing Bill, The Lords and the, 25–33

LIL

Lilly (W. S.), The End of a Legend, 826–837
Lodge (Sir Oliver), The Attitude of Science to the Unusual: a Reply to Professor Newcomb, 206–222
London monasteries under Henry VIII, 1026–1037
Lord (Walter Frewen), The Lost Empire of England (?), 230–240
Lord Chamberlain, The, and the censorship of plays, 504–520
Lords, The, and the Licensing Bill, 25–33
Lords' veto, The, finance legislation, and the policy of the Government, 223–229
Lyrical poetry, Swinburne and Meredith, 965–979

MAGEE (Archbishop) and Modern Radicalism, 230–240
Maggie: a Sketch from Life, 321–336
Making or Marring of Things Military, The, 397–410
Malcolm (Ian), Ireland 'in Extremis,' 535–540
Mallock (W. H.), The Missing Essentials in Economic Science, 435–452; 838–854
Marriott (J. A. R.), Reform of the House of Lords, 34–47; The Great Inquest, 614–629
Marx (Karl), Socialism, and Economics, 435–452
Massy (Lieut.-Colonel C. F.), India Revisited, 373–385
Maxwell (Sir Herbert), National Afforestation, 648–662
Melville (Lewis), The Centenary of Edgar Allan Poe, 140–152; William Beckford's Adventure in Diplomacy: an Unpublished Correspondence, 783–799
Mendel (Abbot G. J.), his experiments in hybridisation, 74–90
Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (Felix), 337–345
Meredith (George) and his friend Swinburne, 965–979
Messina Earthquake, The, 312–320
Military training and home defence, 1–10
Military Weakness, Our, 11–15
Milton, 65–73
Mitra (S. M.), Indian Reforms: a Hindu View, 170–176
Modern Occultism, 126–139; reply to, 206–222
Monks and friars and the dissolution of religious houses, 1026–1037
Morley's (Lord) Indian Reforms, 177–190; Hindu criticism of, 170–176

POO

Mortality among children, 48–64
Moslem aspirations for political liberty, 361–374

NATIONAL Afforestation, 648–662
National expenditure and taxation, 909–924
Naval and industrial expansion of Germany, 346–360
Naval Power, The Balance of, and the Triple Alliance, 1068–1082
Naval Situation, Six German Opinions on the, 725–743
Naval Situation, The, 541–564
Nemi, Lake, and sunken galleys, 495–503
Newcomb (Prof. Simon), Modern Occultism, 126–139; reply to, 206–222

OMAR Khayyam and Edward FitzGerald, 461–470
O'Neill (Æneas), Six German Opinions on the Naval Situation, 725–743
Ornaments Rubric, Prayer-Book Revision and the, 775–782
Orr (John), The Taxation of Land Values: a Reply to Mr. Harold Cox, 699–710
Ottoman Empire, The, under constitutional rule, 755–760
Ottomans and Christians under the new régime in Turkey, 16–24
Oxford and the Working Classes, 521–534

PAGET (Lady), Court and Society at Berlin in the 'Fifties: a Reminiscence, 91–108
Paul (Herbert), Milton, 65–73
Peace or a Sword? Some Reflections of an Extremist, 117–125
Peace (Sir Walter), The 'Unification' of South Africa, 904–908
Pictures of the year, the Royal Academy and the Salon, 1005–1017
Pitt (Mr.), William Beckford, and the French war of 1797, 783–799
Pitt's (Mr.) war policy and Henry Dundas, 931–933
Plunkett (Sir Horace), Mr. Birrell's Irish Land Bill, 946–964
Poe, Edgar Allan, The Centenary of, 140–152
Pollock (Lieut.-Colonel Alsager), The Making or Marring of Things Military, 397–410
Polar exploration by sledges instead of ships, 690–698
Poor Law administration, Royal Commission's Report, 614–629
Poor Relief in the Days to come, 875–890

POP

Popham (Mrs. Cecil), Maggie: a Sketch from Life, 321-336
Poverty, unemployment, and Free Trade, 288-298
Prayer-Book Revision and the Ornaments Rubric, 775-782
Presbyterianism and Episcopacy, Mutual recognition or reunion, 386-396
Prevention of Crime Act, The, 241-250
Protectorates, Crown Colonies, and the Colonial Office, 599-613
Provincial Governments in India and decentralisation, 810-825
Prussian Court and Society fifty years ago, 91-108
Psychical research and telepathy, 206-222
Public-House, The Future of the, 994-1004
Public Trustee, The, twelve months' experience, 411-418
Pulsford (Senator E.), A Lesson from Australia, 471-479
Pustau (Captain von) on German naval programme, 737-740

QUO Vadis? a Prospect in Indian Politics, 711-724

RADICAL policy and Britain's peril, 230-240
Railway to India, A, 163-169
Rath (Herr Legationsrath vom) on Anglo-German entente, 740-743
Reform of the House of Lords, 34-47
Reforms in India, effects on landowners and cultivators, 711-724
Religious education, State interference in, 453-460
Religious Houses of London, Henry VIII and the, 1026-1037
Representative Church Council, The, and the Education Bill, 91-108, 109-116
Reunion of the Churches, ideals and hindrances, 761-774
Reventlow (Count Ernst zu) on German-English rapprochement, 731-732
Rhys (Ernest), A Tribute to Swinburne, 965-979
Ribblesdale (Lord), The Lords and the Licensing Bill, 25-33
Roman galleys in an Italian lake, 495-503
Roosevelt (Mr. Theodore) on naval power, 1071-1072
Rosebery's (Lord) Committee on Reform of the House of Lords, 34-47
Royal Academy, The, and the Salon, 1005-1017

SUE

Royce (Rev. G. Monroe), Henry VIII and the Religious Houses of London, 1026-1037
Rude Awakening, A, 565-569
Runciman (Mr.) and the Representative Church Council, 109-116, 117-125
Ruskin College and the working classes, 521-534
Russell (Major-General Frank S.), Is Invasion possible? 1-10
Rye (J. B.), Oxford and the Working Classes, 521-534

SALON, The Royal Academy and the, 1005-1017
Samassa (Professor) on German naval expansion, 735-737
Schulze-Gaevernitz (Dr. G. von) on British Imperialism and German expansion, 846-860
Science, The Attitude of, to the Unusual: a Reply to Professor Newcomb, 206-222
Scottish Orders and Catholic Reunion, 386-396
Second Chamber, Advantages of a, and Reform of the House of Lords, 34-47
Sellers (Miss Edith), An 'Insurance against Unemployment' Scheme, 272-282; Poor Relief in the Days to come, 875-890
Separation orders and the law of divorce, 299-311
Shakespeare, The Defamers of, 419-434; 630-647
Shakespeare, The Vindicators of: a Reply to Sir Edward Sullivan, 1038-1055
Sicilian earthquake, The, 312-320, 663-674
Silver, Price of, its influence on our trade with the East, 675-689
Sledging as a Method of Exploring the Arctic Ocean, 690-698
Social Africa, The 'Unification' of, 904-908
Sociology, Inheritance and, 74-90
Spender (Harold), What should the Government do? 223-229
Spiritualism and modern psychical research, 126-139
Stanley of Alderley (Lord), The Educational Problem, 109-116
State-aided insurance against unemployment, 272-282
State Feeding of School Children in London, 862-874
Statham (Heathcote), The Royal Academy and the Salon, 1005-1017
Suess' (Professor) theory of origin of earthquakes, 319-320

SUL

Sullivan (Sir Edward), The Defamers of Shakespeare, 419–434; 630–647; a Reply to, 1088–1055
Swedish Experience in Education, A, 1018–1025
Swinburne, A Tribute to, 965–979

TAXATION of Land Values, The, 191–205; a Reply to, 699–710
Technical training for school children, in England and in Sweden, 1019–25
Telepathy and unexplained physical phenomena, 206–222
Theatrical censorship, its origin, 504–520
'Tied houses' and reform of the public-house, 994–1004
Tozer (Basil), Divorce versus Compulsory Celibacy, 299–311
Trade rivalries of England, Germany, and United States, 346–360
Tree-planting and unemployment, 648–662
Triple Alliance, The Balance of Naval Power and the, 1068–1082
Tulloch (Captain T. G.), The Aërial Peril, 800–809
Turkey, Constitutional, The Future of, 361–374
Turkey, The Origin of the Revolt in, 755–760
Turkey under constitutional government, 16–24, 755–760
Turkish Court, The, from Abdul Medjid to Abdul Hamid, 980–993
Turkish railway enterprise, 1088–1094

UNEMPLOYED, The, and tree-plantation, 648–662
Unemployment from the 'Unemployed' Point of View, 153–162

YOU

'Unification,' The, of South Africa, 904–908
Union, The Act of, and the financial relations of Ireland and England, 855–861
Unionist Party, The, and its Fiscal Sore, 584–598

VAMBÉRY (Professor A.), The Future of Constitutional Turkey, 361–374; Personal Recollections of Abdul Hamid II and his Court, 980–993
Vestments and Prayer-Book Revision, 775–782

WAR Horizon, A Glance at a, 925–935
Wealth-production, views of economists and of Socialists, 838–854
Weber (Rear-Admiral) on German and English navies, 727–731
Welsh farm, Love and sorrow on a, 321–336
What Every German Knows, 891–903
Whetham (W. C. D.), Inheritance and Sociology, 74–90
White (Sir William H.), The Naval Situation, 541–564
Work-for-all fallacy, and insurance against unemployment, 153–162
Working-class education and Ruskin College, 521–534

YEAR, A, with the Public Trustee, 411–418
Young Turks, The, 16–24

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO. LTD., LONDON
COLCHESTER AND ETON